General Questionnaire

Question 1
What is your age, sex and what are you studying?

21, female, Artificial Intelligence

Question 2
Were the instructions provided at the start sufficient enough to understand the game? If not, were the trials enough to get a proper understanding of the game?

Yes, the instruction were sufficient.
The trials did make it even more clear and helped you more to get a sense of what would be a good strategy and not

Question 3
What was your mood like today?

Relatively neutral but overall pretty good

Question 4
Did you have any prior knowledge of the Mod Game before the start of the experiment?

No

Don't forget to answer the questions on the other side of the paper!

Question 5
Did you know any of the other participants that you played with in the session before the start of the experiment?

No

Question 6
Some of our participants have played the Mod-Game with a computer partner rather than a human partner in some of the blocks.
For each block give a percentage on how confident you are that you played with a human partner in that block and briefly explain why. (e.g. Block 1: 100%, you are completely certain that you played with a human partner)
Block 1:

50%. , the strategys seemed pretty random

Block 2:

80%. , it felt like the opponent kind of figured out my strategys

Block 3:

70%., it felt like & I could see through the strategy of the opponent sometimes, but they also made some random moves once in a while which where not very effective.

P-beauty contest
All participants will do this contest. The winner gets a Tony's Chocolonely chocolate bar of their choice! Mark the number that you think will be the average of the numbers chosen by all participants, divided by 3 and multiplied by 2.(take ⅔ of the number you think will be the average of the numbers chosen by all participants, e.g. if you think 90 will be the average of the numbers chosen by all participants, you mark 60)

0 10 20 30 40 (50) 60 70 80 90 100
